

Pollino

The largest national park in Italy, Pollino, covers more than 475,000 acres and is home to silver fir and lobels maple, rhubarb and mint, newts and yellow-bellied toads, golden eagles and eagle owls. The Pollino line of cabinet jewelry and napkin rings brings the essence of that Italian national park to your home.

NEW

NEW

NEW